	(i) Full fee-paying domestic undergraduate tuition fee	Australian or New Zealand citizens or Permanent Residents.	Subject to the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.
	(ii) Domestic Postgraduate Tuition Fee	Australian or New Zealand citizens or Permanent Residents.	Subject to the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.
	(iii) Student Contribution (SC) Fee	Commonwealth supported places.	Subject to compliance with relevant Commonwealth legislation and approval by the Vice-Chancellor, consistent with principles set by Council
	(iv) Vocational Education and Training Fee	Students enrolled in VET programs.	Determined in accordance with State Government regulations.
	(v) International Tuition Fee	International students (including study abroad students).	Subject to the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.
	(vi) Offshore Agreement Tuition Fee	Students enrolled offshore under agreements with the University's offshore partners	Level, timing and collection of fees and refund policies by agreement with offshore partners and as publicised to enrolled and prospective offshore students.
(b) Non-award courses and units
	(vii) Non-award Tuition Fee	Students enrolled in non-award courses or units.	Except in respect of Commonwealth – supported places, tuition fees for non-award students are the same as the fee charged for award students.
	(viii) Short course Tuition Fee	Students enrolled in non-award short courses or units.	Fees determined on full-cost recovery basis and available to students on application.

- (2) The prescribed tuition fee may vary for different student cohorts, course structures and modes of delivery, and will be as determined by the Vice-Chancellor. The tuition fee will be published in such form and by such means as the Vice-Chancellor determines.

3. Remission or refund of tuition fee

- (1) Domestic undergraduate and postgraduate students may be entitled to remission and / or refund of tuition fees in accordance with the provisions of the Remission of Fees and Re-Crediting of Student Learning Entitlement Policy (November 2009)

- (2) International students may be entitled to a refund of tuition fees in accordance with the provisions of the International Student Tuition Fee Refund Policy (February 2010).

4. Service fees and late charges

- (1) Students may be liable for University service fees, late charges, penalties and fines on the basis of:
- (a) failure to adhere to approved enrolment payment deadlines; or
 - (b) charges for goods or services provided to the student; or
 - (c) recovery of bank and debt collection charges; or
 - (d) the cost of processing a student's reinstatement of enrolment as a result of payment of an outstanding fee or charge or portion of a fee or charge during or after the relevant teaching period.
- (2) The Vice-Chancellor must determine the level of each service fee, late charge, penalty and fine on an annual basis. These fees will be published in such form and by such means as the Vice-Chancellor determines.

5. Payment deadlines

- (1) All fees and charges must be paid in full by the due date displayed on the relevant notice.
- (2) (a) Subject to sub-rule 2(b), the due date for the payment of a fee or charge must be at least ten days after the date on which the notice referred to in sub-rule (1) was issued.
- (b) The period specified in sub-rule 2(a) between the issue date of a notice and the due date for payment of a fee or charge may be reduced by the Director, SSC if a student submits an enrolment after the commencement of the relevant teaching period.

6. Non-payment of fees and / or non-submission of a required form or document

- (1) The Vice-Chancellor may direct that one, some or all of the following actions be taken if a student fails to pay all or an outstanding portion of a fee or charge payable by that student or fails to submit a required form or document by the due date:
- (a) suspend the student's access to the University or part of the University; or
 - (b) withhold official notification of the student's examination or other assessment results (except for notice of eligibility for supplementary or deferred examinations or other form of assessment); or
 - (c) cancel the student's enrolment; or
 - (d) defer the conferral of a degree, diploma or certificate on the student; or
 - (e) not permit the student to re-enrol in a subsequent teaching period
- until the outstanding fee or charge, or portion outstanding, is paid in full.
- (2) The Director SSC must give effect to any direction made under sub-rule 6(1) and notify the relevant student in writing of that direction.
- (3) (a) When outstanding fees or charges are paid in full, the Director SSC must notify the student in writing of the revocation of the direction made under sub-rule 6(1);
- (b) When the cancellation of a student's enrolment under rule 6(1)(c) is revoked during or after the end of the teaching period in which cancellation occurs, unless the Director, SSC directs otherwise that revocation shall not have retrospective effect and the student may only re-enrol in a subsequent teaching period.

- (4) A student remains liable for the full amount of the tuition fee owing for that teaching period if his or her enrolment is cancelled on or after the relevant census date, unless the student is granted a remission or refund of fees under rule 3.
- (5) Any portion of a tuition fee paid by a student whose enrolment remains cancelled after the relevant census date shall be non-refundable and may not be credited towards any future tuition fee liability.
