1. INTENT

To establish an academic promotion system that is merit-based, equitable and recognises and rewards sustained achievement in alignment with the University's strategic priorities and relevant frameworks.

2. ORGANISATIONAL SCOPE

Academic Staff excluding casual or sessional.

3. DEFINITIONS

None.

4. PRINCIPLES

- 4.1 Edith Cowan University is committed to an academic promotion policy that promotes academic staff on merit and sustained high achievement.
- 4.2 It is the responsibility of the applicant to clearly demonstrate how they meet the requirements for promotion, commensurate with the academic level applied for, as defined in the Academic Staff Performance Expectations and Outcomes (ASPEO) Framework and in compliance with the relevant Academic Staff Promotion Guidelines.

5. POLICY CONTENT

5.1 Eligibility for promotion

- 5.1.1 To be eligible for promotion, an academic staff member must demonstrate performance that meets the criteria prescribed in the ASPEO Framework.

- 5.1.2 For promotion to Professor (Level E), an academic staff member must demonstrate performance commensurate with the Role of Professor as described in the ASPEO Framework and the 'Role of Professor' statement.
- 5.1.3 (a) To be eligible for promotion, a member of Academic Staff must:
- i. Hold a full time or fractional full-time appointment with an ongoing or fixed-term contract. Academic staff with a fixed term contract must have at least 12 months remaining on their contract at the time of submission (for applications to Level B) or at the closing date for promotion (for applications to Level C, D and E);
 - ii. Apply for promotion in the Academic role (in accordance with 5.2) that reflects their substantive academic role;
 - iii. For promotion to Level B, at the date of submission of application, have a minimum of one (1) year continuous service within the University. For promotion to Level C and above, at the close of the applications have a minimum of one (1) year continuous service within the University. One (1) year continuous service includes service on secondment to the University but excludes service on casual contracts. Service shall not be deemed to be broken by parental leave, leave without pay, study leave or long service leave;
 - iv. Meet the criteria specified and detailed in the relevant Academic Staff Promotion Guidelines;
 - v. Not have applied unsuccessfully for promotion in the previous year.
- (b) Where the University has initiated formal disciplinary action against the applicant, the applicant will be deemed ineligible for promotion at the time of application.

5.1.4 Subsequent application for promotion

- (a) After a successful promotion, the next application for promotion would normally not occur until a member of Academic Staff has reached the top of the salary scale (step level) in their classification. If an applicant is not at the top of the salary scale and is applying for promotion, this is considered to be an accelerated promotion.
- (b) If a member of Academic Staff applies for an accelerated promotion, a minimum of three (3) continuous years at ECU must have been served since the last promotion.

5.2 Academic Roles

- 5.2.1 Applicants for promotion can apply in one of the following four (4) categories of academic roles, provided they have been formally assigned to the academic role for a one (1) year prior to applying for promotion, as specified below:
- (a) Teaching and Research Scholar
 - (b) Research Focused Scholar
 - (c) Teaching Focused Scholar

(d) Practitioner Scholar

5.3 Timeframes

- 5.3.1 Applications for promotion to Level B will be considered at any time.
- 5.3.2 Applications for promotion to Levels C, D and E are considered annually.
- 5.3.3 Applications for promotion to Levels C, D and E received after close of business (COB), 5.00pm on the advertised closing date will not be considered.
- 5.3.4 Promotion for all levels will be effective as soon as practicable, following approval.

5.4 Confidentiality

- 5.4.1 All proceedings of all committees involved in the annual promotion round shall be regarded as strictly confidential, except that applications and supporting papers shall be made available to referees and assessors, and to the Vice-Chancellor or the Appeals Committee, if required. The Chairs of all committees are required to ensure that formal recommendations are documented and held in accordance with ECU's Record Management Policy.

5.5 Promotion Criteria

5.5.1 For promotion to Levels B, C and D:

5.5.1.1 Consider all of the following criteria:

- (a) The applicant's qualification and/or relevant experience as set out in the relevant guidelines. ('Academic Staff Promotion Guidelines for Promotion to Level B' or 'Academic Staff Promotion Guidelines for Levels C and D');
- (b) The demonstrated achievement of the applicant against that prescribed in the ASPEO Framework;
- (c) The position classification standards as described in the relevant Industrial instrument;
- (d) Demonstrated performance of the applicant, as a whole, in their assigned academic role, taking into account the areas of academic achievement and the assessment as set out in the relevant Academic Staff Promotion Guidelines;
- (e) Demonstrated evidence that the applicant is well advanced towards meeting the expectations, requirements and outcomes for the academic level being applied for, as prescribed in the ASPEO Framework;
- (f) Competitiveness with respect to other successful applicants at the same level and relative to national/ international standards for promotion, as assessed by the relevant Promotions Committee;
- (g) For promotion to Associate Professor Level D, the application must demonstrate a convincing case of notable and sustained achievement to justify promotion above Senior Lecturer Level C, as set out in the 'Academic Staff Promotion Guidelines for Promotion to Levels C and D'; and

- (h) The applicant's academic role, full time equivalent (FTE), and relative opportunity based on the discipline and/or organisational context and may also consider career interruptions or other irregular career paths.

5.5.1.2 The relevant Committees will consider the appropriateness of the formal qualifications held by applicants and/or substantial progress towards such qualifications.

5.5.1.3 A lack of appropriate qualifications or experience may prevent an applicant being promoted.

5.5.2 For promotion to Level E:

- a) Demonstrated evidence that the applicant is meeting the expectations, requirements and outcomes for Level E, as prescribed in the Academic Staff Performance Expectations and Outcomes (ASPEO) Framework;
- b) Exceptional academic scholarship and performance consistent with ECU's requirements for the Role of Professor statement as described in the 'Academic Staff Promotion Guidelines for Promotion to Professor (Level E)', including a recognised national/international profile in the relevant discipline area; and

A strong alignment of the applicant's discipline area with the strategic and academic priorities of the University.

5.6 Assessment Process

5.6.1 General

5.6.1.1 The Committee will assess applications based on each applicant's overall case.

5.6.1.2 Each voting committee member will assess applicants separately on the three areas of academic achievement using the ASPEO Framework.

5.6.1.3 Under exceptional circumstances, the relevant Promotions Committee can make a special case and recommendation to the Vice-Chancellor for an applicant to be promoted.

5.6.2 Promotion to Lecturer (Level B)

5.6.2.1 The Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor determines who will be promoted based upon recommendations from the School Promotion Advisory Groups.

5.6.2.2 For each applicant, the relevant School Promotion Advisory Group will provide the Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor with a statement as to whether the applicant is recommended for promotion, together with a detailed evaluation report addressing each criterion for promotion.

- 5.6.2.3 If the Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor finds that due process was not followed or appropriate criteria were not applied, they may review the merit of the application and determine an alternative outcome to the Executive Dean.
- 5.6.2.4 The relevant Executive Dean will advise applicants in writing of the outcomes.
- 5.6.3 Promotion to Senior Lecturer (Level C) and Associate Professor (Level D)
- 5.6.3.1 The Vice-Chancellor determines who will be promoted based on the recommendations from the University Promotion Advisory Committee.
- 5.6.3.2 For each applicant, the University Promotion Advisory Committee will provide a statement as to whether the applicant is recommended for promotion, together with a detailed evaluation report addressing each criterion for promotion.
- 5.6.3.3 The University Promotion Advisory Committee will assess applications and decide whether each applicant has met the University's standards for promotion to Level C and D, as defined in the relevant Academic Staff Promotion Guidelines.
- 5.6.3.4 The University Promotion Advisory Committee may interview applicants as part of the assessment process.
- 5.6.3.5 The Chair of the University Promotion Advisory Committee will advise applicants in writing of the outcomes.
- 5.6.4 Promotion to Professor (Level E)
- 5.6.4.1 The Professorial Appointment Committee will determine promotion outcomes based on the strength of the case made by the applicant.
- 5.6.4.2 The Professorial Appointment Committee will consider each application and other relevant information and will request distinguished assessors external to the University to provide an independent critique on the scholarship and standing of the applicant.
- 5.6.4.3 The Professorial Appointment Committee as part of the assessment process will:
- (a) Require the relevant Executive Dean to provide a substantial assessment on the scholarship and standing of the applicant against the promotion criteria, including a recommendation for or against promotion;
 - (b) Apply the University's standards for Level E as prescribed in the ASPEO Framework, and the requirements for the Role of Professor as described in the 'Academic Staff Promotion Guidelines for Promotion to Professor (Level E)'; and
 - (c) Award promotion consistent with national and/or international standards based on the Committee's combined experience.
- 5.6.4.4 The relevant Chair will advise applicants in writing of the outcome after a final determination has been made. Applicants may seek an interview with the Chair of the Professorial Appointment Committee for further clarification of the outcome.
