4. POLICY CONTENT

4.1. Specific Roles and Responsibilities

4.1.1. Emergency Planning Committee (EPC)

The standard obligates the University to form an EPC covering its 3 campuses. The EPC is to be made up of person or persons responsible for the facility or its occupants and visitors. Members of the University EPC;

- Manager, Campus Operations and Resources (Chair) ;
- Manager Quality and Service Delivery (Deputy Chair);
- Chief Warden from each Campus;
- Senior manager representing each school and service centre;
- Manager Buildings and Services; and
- Manager Business Risk and Resilience.

The EPC is responsible for

- Developing an emergency plan and response procedures in accordance with the standard.
- Establishing an emergency control organisation (ECO) to operate in accordance with the emergency plan.
- Reviewing and testing the emergency plan.
- Other duties as listed in the standard.

4.1.2. Emergency Control Organisation (ECO)

Each campus will have an ECO consisting of the following members:

- Chief Warden and deputy;
- Building Warden and deputies; and
- Wardens and deputies.

The number of floor wardens will be determined by the size of the facility, number of occupants, the installed occupant warning equipment and the fire and life safety features of the facility.

The primary roles and responsibilities for individual ECO members are contained in the Campus Emergency Manuals (point 5. Campus Emergency Management Group) located at <http://intranet.ecu.edu.au/staff/centres/facilities-and-services/our-services/emergency-management> .

The Chief Warden will provide ECO members with appropriate training and personal identification.

During emergencies, instructions given by the ECO personnel take precedence over the normal management structure.

- Participate in training and exercises.
- Comply with their facility’s emergency response procedures.

Staff in charge of students are responsible for the safe evacuation of those students in an emergency.

4.1.6. Tenants

- Participate in training and exercises.
- Provide floor/area wardens for their leased premises if requested by the chief warden.

4.2. People with Special Needs

To ensure safe evacuation of a person/s with special needs a Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP) downloaded from a personal emergency evacuation plan (PEEP) for students and staff with disabilities under their control. The template for preparing a PEEP can be found under “downloads” at <http://intranet.ecu.edu.au/staff/centres/facilities-and-services/our-services/emergency-management> and is required for each individual. Each plan should be determined in consultation with the person and the appropriate warden.

4.3. Emergency Plan

The EPC will be responsible for development of a generic Emergency Plan to cover all facilities on each campus. The Emergency Plan will be developed in accordance with the standard and include:

- Emergency Prevention.
- Emergency Preparedness.
- Emergency Mitigation.
- Training and maintenance of evacuation processes.
- Roles and responsibilities of the ECO and occupants of the facility.

4.4. Training and Evacuation Exercise

Training will be conducted in accordance with the requirements of the standard.

The Chief Warden will, on behalf of the EPC:

- Organise six monthly training for the ECO members.
- Organise an annual emergency response exercise for the occupants of each facility.
- Maintain records of all training and exercise.
